

Note from the Director:

We had 88 talented actors audition for this show! I was blown away with the level of talent that I saw over the past few days. Casting for a show is always a complex and arduous process, but this was one of our most challenging! There are so many factors that our team takes into account to create the perfect cast. We are very excited about this cast and what each of them will bring to the show. If you did not get a part in this show, it is not a reflection of your audition. We would love to utilize your talents in other areas of the production and we hope to see each of you at future auditions. Our first read-through and parent meeting is this Thursday from 6:30-8:30 in the Cox Hall.
