Clemson Little Theatre, a cherished institution in Pendleton, is one of the oldest community theatres in South Carolina.

Clemson Little Theatre, just off the square in downtown Pendleton, SC, was founded in 1931. We are a non-profit organization offering theatre experiences and an inclusive community for both adults and youth in the Upstate. Annually, we offer 4-5 adult shows and 2 youth shows per season.

While we're committed to growth as we approach a century of volunteer productions, COVID hit live entertainment venues hard. Clemson Little Theatre was not exempt from those impacts.

We need YOUR Help! Though we couldn't perform during the COVID shutdown, many of the theatre's expenses continued. As we resumed shows, our patrons were cautious to resume public activities. We are currently thrilled to be able to continue bringing laughter and tears to the stage this season with a new look and new sound.

We have invested in a new sound system, updated playbills, and enhanced outreach to make the experience more enjoyable. We also added a bonus 7th show this season. These improvements are not only for the 650+ patrons who attend each show, they are also for students who attend our summer workshops, and community members who gather in our facilities for social events.

For as little as $55, you have the opportunity to be part of the live community theatre experience and help us carry on the legacy of providing quality entertainment right here in Pendleton! And, as a 501(c)3, your donations are tax-deductible.

We have many ways YOU can support the theatre:

- Show Sponsorships: Each of our 7 shows this season can have one or more sponsors. Sponsorship prices range from $500 to $1,000 for the show of your choice.
- Playbill Ads: Choice of ad size and some choice of placement in the playbill are available. Prices range from $55 to $550, depending on size and location. Advertisers are listed in all playbills and on our website. These platforms will include links to your business' website.
- Season Tickets: Price for adults is only $70 for all 7 shows of the 2023-24 Season, which will also make you an official member of CLT for the season. Individual adult ticket purchases are $15-$17 per show, so this is a substantial savings.
- Donations: Patron level donations of any amount are also appreciated.

Please call or email to let us know how YOU will be able to support our community theatre! See attached forms for more information.
